

As a/an	I Want to.....	So that.....
Art Maker	upload the final art work image, the video of making it and the cost of the product.	the customers can buy the product and learn how to make it.
Admin	rates the product and the video depending on the art maker experience and the users feedback if same type of product exists.	I can suggest the customer the best video among all the same product videos.
Admin	display and maintain the status of the all product (In stock/out of stock).	the customers can view all the art work products available and its status.
Customer	view all the art work products available.	I can select the product he wants.
Admin	allow the customers to purchase or view the product only if the user logs in.	I can increase the customers to my website.
Customer	register and login to the website.	I can purchase the product I selected or learn how to make it.
Customer	open the video related to the product he selected.	he can learn how to make the art he selected.
Customer	check how many days the product takes to reach his location.	he can know the exact date of delivery.
Admin	provide the items required to make the product.	I can make the customer learning processes more efficient and easy.
Customer	click on buy option and enters his delivery address.	he can get the product/items required delivered to the mentioned address.
Paypal	allow the customers to purchase products through online.	he can directly complete his payment process online.
Customer	complete the payment process online or can go for COD.	I can end up with the payment process.

Admin	checks the payment status and sends confirmation to the customer.	the customer can get his order confirmation and finally gets his product delivered.
Admin	provides feedback form to the product.	the customer can write his experience with the product or the service.